SUBJECT: THE MILITARY SITUATION IN CAMBODIA

REF.

25X1A2g

Government troops and aircraft in the past few days have reportedly killed over 100 Khmer Communists in fighting ten miles east of Phnom Penh. Ten miles southeast of the capital, other government forces are maneuvering to retake positions abandoned in the face of insurgent ground attacks over the weekend. In the northwestern part of the country, a large truck convoy loaded with rice made the run south from Battambang City to the provincial capital of Kompong Chhnang on November 25. River convoys will move the rice to Phnom Penh via the Tonle Sap River.
